ADMISSIONS CRITERIA 2024

Oakgrove Integrated College is a different type of school which gives an excellent academic education, and so much more. Oakgrove does not believe in the transfer testing process: we don't need a test to know your child is good enough. Some say a child should only go to school with people like them: we want a society where this no longer happens. In Oakgrove Integrated College, all identities are equally cherished and valued. We learn from, as well as about each other. Oakgrove was founded by parents; like them, we want a city where Protestant, Catholic and other backgrounds learn together beside each other every day. Oakgrove is this city's only college integrated by design. We need your vision to change this city and make it a place for everyone, together. Oakgrove Integrated College is the right choice.

Where there are more applicants than places available, the following criteria shall be applied, in the order listed:

- (a) Applicants who name Oakgrove Integrated College as their First Preference post-primary school on the Transfer Form.
- (b) Applicants who have a "child of the family" presently or previously enrolled in the school. Within this criterion, priority will be given to those applicants where all elder 'children of the family' attended this College.
- (c) Applicants who are the first child in the family to be of the age to transfer to secondary education or in the case of a family having arrived in the area within the P6/P7 year (proof required), is the first to reach transfer age since arrival.
- (d) Applicants who are transferring from any Grant Maintained Integrated Primary School or Controlled Integrated Primary School as defined in the Education Reform Order (NI) 1989.
- (e) Other applicants.

In the event of there being more applicants than places available for the last criterion that can be applied, then selection for the remaining places will be on the basis of the initial letter of the surnames in the order set out below (if applicants have the same surname then the first forename will be used to list applicants. In the event of two or more children having exactly the same name, the date of birth, as entered on the birth certificate, will be used as a tie-breaker with the oldest child being chosen first).

R, L, P, J, K, C, U, I, Mac, E, S, Q, O', N, V, Y, Z, O, F, W, M, X, A, T, Mc, B, D, H, G

(The order was determined by a random selection.)

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Prospective parents should complete the Official Transfer Form, providing the relevant and correct information. The Board of Governors reserves the right to seek confirmation on any information supplied.

In order to achieve a reasonable balance Oakgrove Integrated College will reserve a maximum of 20% of the places available for pupils from traditions other than the Protestant and Roman Catholic traditions. In the event of there being fewer applicants from the "other traditions" sector than the allocated 20% of places then the balance of places will be divided equally between Protestant and Roman Catholic applicants. In the event of an odd number of places remaining in this division, an additional place will be allocated to the sector having the greater number of applicants. In the event of there being fewer applicants from either the Protestant or Roman Catholic traditions than there are places available for that tradition then the balance of places will be allocated to the other tradition.

The perceived religious affiliation of an applicant will be decided by one or other of the following means:

- (i) The religious affiliation noted on, or uploaded with, the Transfer Form by the parent/guardian; or
- (ii) The type of primary school which the pupil attended; i.e. controlled or maintained; or
- (iii) Directly from the applicant's Primary School Principal; or
- (iv) The information supplied to the College on, or uploaded with, the Transfer Form.

In the event that the total number of applicants for a particular tradition is greater than the number of places within that tradition of applicants as set out above, then the allocation of places will be determined, in the order set down above, to applicants in order of preference, i.e. the criteria above will be applied to first preference applicants of that tradition and then, if places are still available in that particular tradition, to second preference applicants of that tradition and so on.

The selection for admission to the College will be applied firstly to applicants whose normal place of residence is in Northern Ireland at the time of their proposed admission and secondly, if there are any places still remaining, to applicants not so resident at the time of application.
